of Ayodhya Railway Station

Station Building Signage

Redevelopment of Ayodhya Railway Station

Architecture inspired by Shri Ram JanmBhoomi Temple.

The station serves two railway lines (Varanasi – Jaunpur – Ayodhya – Lucknow line and Gorakhpur–Mankapur–Ayodhya line). Currently, it has three platforms and five railway tracks. The station code is AY.

The new design will add new amenities (such as more washrooms, lounges, dormitories, and ticket office). Its capacity will be increased to handle the greater passenger numbers expected due to the construction of the Ram Mandir in Ayodhya.

AYODHYA AIRPORT CONSTRUCTION

The first commercial flight operation at the Maryada Purushottam Shri Ram Airport in Uttar Pradesh's Ayodhya will begin with the expected opening of the grand Ram temple in January 2024, officials said.

More than 70 percent of the construction work of Terminal-1 along with the air traffic control tower, apron, taxiway, and isolation area has been completed. The airport will be able to handle 500 passengers per hour and will hold eight Airbus A-320 aircraft at a time.

LATA MANGESHKAR CHOWK

Ayodhya got its major attraction spot which is now a new selfie point for locals and tourists. Lata Mangeshkar Chowk is located on the road connecting Saryu Ghat (Naya Ghat) and Ram Path, attracting most visitors and tourists on the way to the temple.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi virtually inaugurated the Lata Mangeshkar Chowk on the 93rd birth anniversary of the legendary singer.

This project costed ₹7.9Cr and the grand veena was designed by Padma awardee Ram V Sutar who also created 'Statue Of Unity'

This spot has become landmark for the city as people from every age group loves to visit this place.
