THE HOUSE OF ABHINANDAN LODHA® INVESTS ₹300 CRORE

FOR A 25-ACRE LAND PARCEL IN AYODHYA
AHEAD OF RAM MANDIR INAUGURATION

"The project is located around 12 to 15 minutes away from the upcoming Ram Temple. The company plans to invest a total amount of around ₹1200 crore spread across three to four years (by December 2026)," said Samujjwal Ghosh, Chief Executive Officer (CEO), HOABL.

"The total investment for Ayodhya is close to ₹1200 crore. We have looked at an initial investment of ₹300 crore for the first phase. Having said that, ₹1200 crore is what we intend investing for over a period of three to four years," he said.

The company has acquired 25 acres of land and is in the process of getting necessary regulatory approvals. "The acquisition phase has reached a certain crescendo and parallel to that we are getting the regulatory piece in place as well. This will be plotted development. The 25-acre development will comprise plots along with amenities such as a clubhouse and other services," he told HT Digital.

REAL ESTATE PRICES HEAD NORTH

IN AYODHYA AHEAD OF RAM MANDIR INAUGURATION

The Ayodhya Development Authority (ADA) is planning to come up with a housing scheme by the end of this month ahead of the Ram Mandir inauguration.

With the Ram Mandir's inauguration in Ayodhya fast approaching, the once 'sleepy town' is experiencing a real estate boom. Real estate brokers say that with several investors from across the country and even overseas chasing fewer land parcels, land prices have hit the roof—in some cases four to 10 times the prices prevalent only four to five years ago.

The Ayodhya airport, which will be Uttar Pradesh's fifth international one after the airports in Lucknow, Varanasi, Noida (under construction) and Kushinagar, is also expected to be inaugurated soon. The first phase of the airport terminal building spans 8000 sq metre area. At present, the entire airport covers 336.59 acres and is being developed at a cost of ₹250 crore.

AYODHYA AIRPORT TO GET FIRST FLIGHT

ON DEC 30; INDIGO REVEALS ROUTES, SCHEDULES

IndiGo, one of India's most preferred air carriers, has now added Ayodhya to its list. This comes out as the 6th domestic destination and the 118th overall destination in the 6E network. The low-cost airline will operate the inaugural flight from the soon-to-be-inaugurated Maryada Purshottam Shri Ram International Airport, Ayodhya. The inaugural flight will land in Ayodhya on December 30, 2023. The commercial operations for direct flights between Ayodhya and Delhi will operate from Jan 6, 2024. As revealed by the operator, Ayodhya will then be connected with Ahmedabad from January 11 onwards.

AYODHYA AIRPORT GETS DGCA LICENSE

The Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) on Thursday issued an Aerodrome License in public use category for all weather conditions for the Ayodhya Airport which will receive its inaugural flight on December 30. DGCA DG Vikram Dev Dutt gave the licence to Airports Authority of India (AAI) chairman Sanjeev Kumar.

“The airport has a 2.2 km long runway with complete aeronautical ground lights (AGLs) infrastructure and is supported by instrument landing system (ILS) which allows it to accommodate flights at night (also) and during low visibility. Both AAI and DGCA officials collaborated to successfully complete this project,” said an AAI official.
